PIERCE'S HORSE KILLED

He Says That Its Demise Was Due to a Badly Constructed Bridge.

NO NON SUIT IN THE HAND CASE

Judge Archibald Refused Attorney Candor's Motion—Dr. N. Y. Leet Put on the Stand by the Defense. Says That Dr. Hand's Nervous Power Is Intact—Tinsley Jury Could Not Agree.

Liverman J. F. Pierce, of Carbonate township, was the plaintiff in an action of trespass against the township of Fell which was tried before Judge Searle yesterday in court room No. 3. Mr. Pierce claimed damages for a horse that met its death under peculiar circumstances and, as he alleges, through the negligence of the township of Fell.

From the testimony adduced it appears that in the year 1891 a young man named Michael Hogan hired a horse and carriage from Mr. Pierce and took Miss Mary Duffy and Miss Nellie McNulty, two comely young women, who were in court yesterday, out for a drive. The night was dark and the road selected by Mr. Hogan not very well lighted.

DUMPED INTO THE RIVER

It crossed the Lackawanna river on a wooden bridge, about 150 feet from the end of which is a railroad track. After crossing the bridge an engine shot across the road on the railroad track in front of the horse.

Whether or not Mr. Hogan had the reins in his hand or around the whip socket at that moment does not appear but at all events the horse shied when it saw the engine's headlight and, as the plaintiff contends, backed against the side of the bridge, which gave way, owing to faulty construction, and precipitated the young ladies, Mr. Hogan and the horse and carriage a distance of nine feet into the seething bosom of the Lackawanna river.

RESULT OF THE FALL

As a consequence of the tumble the spines of the young ladies were ruined, their backs were damaged and they were compelled to abandon their pleasure trip and Mr. Hogan. The unexpected bath dampened their spirits and order, as well as their clothing, and while the accident may have no relation to the fact it is worthy of note that they still bear the names they inherited from their fathers. Mr. Hogan is also single.

When the carriage and horse went over the bridge the former was wrecked and the latter so badly injured that he died. It is held by the defense that the horse did not back over the bridge but went over the bank of the river fifty feet above.

A number of witnesses were examined on each side, one of whom, a Mr. O'Malia, declaring that he saw the horse "hitting" in the stream after the fall. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney J. E. Berry, and the defendant by ex-Judge H. A. Knapp. At 4 o'clock the case was given to the jury.

A NON SUIT REFUSED.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the plaintiff rested in the case of Dr. D. B. Hand against the Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply company, and Attorney Candor, of counsel for the defense, asked for a non suit on the ground that no negligence on the part of the company had been shown by the plaintiff. He reinforced his motion by an exhaustive argument. Attorney S. B. Price, of counsel for the plaintiff, opposed granting the non suit.

Judge Archibald in passing upon the motion said that he thought there had been some evidence of negligence on the part of the company shown and that that stage of the proceedings he did not feel that it would be proper for him to summarily end the case.

Dr. N. Y. Leet was then called to the stand as the first witness for the defense and was questioned at length. He examined Dr. Hand after the accident and found that his nervous power was intact and all right. His opinion was that if a man received a heavy charge of electricity it would burn or kill him. He never saw a case where a charge of electricity caused local paralysis.

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT.

In the case of William Williams against Patrick Brown, the jury yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the defendant. In the case of Robert Tinsley against John Walsh the jury was unable to agree and Judge Edwards discharged it late in the afternoon.

The famous cases of Isaac Travis against Henry Travis were settled yesterday. The plaintiff is an old man who sued his son to compel him to support him. He declared that he decided over a farm he owned to his son upon his agreement to support him for the remainder of his life. By the terms of the settlement yesterday the son retains the land but pays his father for it.

Edwards Judge Edwards in the case of E. F. Boyle against the Hamburg-Brown insurance company was on trial all day.

FUNERAL OF HIRAM AKERY.

Remains Brought from Glen Mary to Chinichilla for Interment.

One of the most largely attended funerals seen in this neighborhood in many years was that of Hiram Akery, of Glenburn, yesterday. Mr. Akery had died in a hospital at Glen Mary, N. Y., Monday evening of brain trouble and his remains had been brought to Chinichilla for interment. The service was conducted by Rev. H. Parsons, of Waverly, and was most impressive.

Mr. Akery was 65 years of age and survived by a wife and three children. The latter are Frank W., of Tompkinsville; May, of Bloomsburg, and George, who resides in Glenburn.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR CHARITY.

Will Be Held at the Academy of Music Tonight.

This evening an entertainment and lecture will be given at the Academy of Music under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul society, of Fine Brook, the proceeds of which will be devoted to charity.

Hon. M. J. Ryan, of Philadelphia, will deliver an address, and some of the most talented of the local entertainers will assist in giving an entertainment that promises to be of unusual merit.

It should be well attended as the object for which it is held is a most worthy one.

CHIMES OF NORMANDY TONIGHT.

Elaborate Production of the Opera by the Mackay-Kenny Company.

Plaquette's romantic opera, "Chimes of Normandy," will be presented in a highly artistic manner by the Mackay-Kenny company tonight, with the full strength of the cast, at the Frothingham.

The "Chimes of Normandy" is an opera that has stood the test of years, and is today one of the sweetest and best of comic operas. Among the many musical gems are "Ding Dong Bell" and chorus, and the grand ensemble, "S'il t'importe."

Fanny Myers appears as the boyish Serpentine; Lizzie Gonzalez, Germaine, the long lost Marchioness; Sylvain Langlois, Marquis; Charles Hoimes, Grenichoux, and Dan Young as Gaspard, the miser. A new and clever addition of operatic artists is Edward R. Rowley, who will make his first appearance as the Notary, a part that gives him great opportunities.

"Chimes of Normandy" will be presented tonight, Friday and Saturday evenings and at the Saturday matinee. Lovers of comic opera will find the Frothingham the coolest place in the city.

Yesterday afternoon and last night "La Mascotte" was repeated before highly pleased audiences.

MUSIC AT LAUREL HILL

Big Musical Festival Will Be Held There in September.

LARGE PRIZES TO BE AWARDED

Event Will Be Held Under the Auspices of the Cymric Association of Music and Literature—Six Hundred Dollars Will Be the Largest Prize. A Number of Other Small Prizes.

A great musical festival or eisteddfod will be held at Laurel Hill Park on Sept. 6 and 7, at the auspices of the Cymric Association of Music and Literature.

This will be the greatest musical event that has ever occurred in north-eastern Pennsylvania. Two thousand dollars will be offered in prizes for the best competitive singing. Six hundred dollars will be offered for the best rendition of "We Never Will Bow Down," and "Let the Hills Resound," by choirs of mixed voices not less than 80 nor over 100 voices.

A prize of $200 will be offered for best rendition of Mozart's "Gloria" for Catholic choir, not to exceed 100 and not less than sixty voices.

A prize of $200 is offered for the best rendition of "Hallelujah Chorus" for brass and reed bands not less than twenty-five nor over thirty-five in number.

A prize of $75, and a gold medal to the leader will be awarded for the best rendition of "The Star Spangled Banner" by a chorus not over eighty and not less than sixty in number, from any of the public schools of the city of Scranton. The leaders of these competitive choirs must either be teachers or pupils of the school which the competitive choir represents.

SALOONS WILL HAVE TO CLOSE.

Prosecutions Against Clerks Employed in Drug Stores on Sunday Will Not Be Pressed.

At an adjourned meeting of the executive committee of the Pastors' union held yesterday afternoon at the Young Men's Christian Association building, there were present: Members Boies, Stells, Sturges, Miller, Clark, Doney and Mahy, and Colonel E. L. Hitchcock, the committee's attorney. It was decided to increase the executive committee's membership to twenty members, to hold the policy of arresting clerks in abeyance, and to begin paying more particular attention to saloon keepers.

Mr. Doney made a report on last Sunday's condition of the city in reference to Sunday closing, and urged more vigorous action at once to insure the success of the movement and to bring the business men who have ceased to do business on the Sabbath.

A brief history of a former similar movement here was given by Mr. Sturges. He also favored more resolute and immediate action, and suggested the enlarging of the committee. It was decided to call a special meeting of the Pastor's union next Monday morning, when Mr. Sturges and Colonel Boies, who were appointed a committee, will present the matter of increasing the executive committee membership. It is proposed that new members shall be representative business men.

From the fact that the prosecution this week of clerks has been construed a persecution, the meeting decided not to cause the arrest of employes for awhile at least.

Several members were urgent in their opinions that the liquor dealers have been too much neglected and it was virtually the decision of the committee that its energies will be directed against the saloon. It was contended that the druggists who are at present aggressive would then cease their opposition.

PLUNGED HER INTO RAIN WATER.

Six-Year-Old Child of John Roche Badly Burned.

The 6-year-old daughter of John Roche, of 431 Fourth street, came near losing her life yesterday. The child's grandmother had built a fire in the back yard for the purpose of burning paper, and the little one, while playing about the blaze, allowed her clothing to come in proximity with it and ignition followed.

The grandmother, who was in the house at the time, ran to the rescue of the child, snatched her up and plunged her into a barrel of rain water, extinguishing the flames. The child was severely burned about the back, but Dr. Longstreet, who was called, does not consider the child's injuries of a fatal character.

The grandmother's hands were painfully burned as a result of her heroic conduct.
